This notice will be provided at least thirty (30) calendar days in advance of serving notice of layoff to regular employee(s), in order to provide the Association with an opportunity to recommend to the College President specific alternatives within the Association's jurisdiction of the contemplated course of action. The reason(s) for the reduction referred to in article 13.1.2 shall be supported by relevant financial and/or enrollment information.

13.1.2 Association Recommendations

Concurrent with the notice referred to in article 13.1.1 and within the thirty (30) calendar day period referred to therein, a College Board member, the College President and one (1) resource person appointed by the College President, will meet, on at least a weekly basis with the President of the Faculty Association and two (2) resource persons from the Faculty Association Executive Committee expressly for the purpose of determining the viability of specific Faculty Association recommendations regarding alternative solutions vis-à-vis those specific functional areas of contemplated reduction with respect to which the Faculty Association has received advance notification.

The Board member and the College President will ensure that the recommendations referred to in this article will be fully considered prior to the serving of notice(s) of layoff per article 13.1.6.

A recommendation referred to in this article shall be deemed viable if its implementation is understood to meet the same requirement(s) as the course of action proposed by the College.

On or before the expiry date of the thirty (30) day advance notification, the College President shall advise the President of the Faculty Association in writing as to the decision taken vis-à-vis this article and the principal reason(s) related thereto.

If further retraining is determined by the President or his/her delegate to be necessary the regular employee shall be granted a further leave of absence without pay or benefits for a period not to exceed six (6) months.

13.1.7.1 If a regular employee designated for layoff under Article 13.1 is granted retraining as provided for in article 13.1.7 and subsequently leaves the employ of the College prior to three (3) years from the layoff date applicable to such retraining, he/she will return to the College an amount equal to one (1) month's pay and benefits (pro-rata) for each year remaining of the three (3) years of service he/she is obliged to complete subsequent to his return to duty.

13.1.10.1 If no one is available who meets the above conditions, a short listing and interview opportunity will be provided to those regular employees who are fully qualified in this area and who had been laid off within the previous two (2) years.

13.1.10.2 Employees shall be responsible to keep a current address on file at the College.

Upon mutual agreement between the Instructor and the Dean/delegate, an Instructor will be considered to have a full teaching load if s/he either:

- 1. prepares up to twelve (12) distinctly different lecture-form contact hours of instruction per week for University Studies and/or Career/Technology lecture courses in any one semester, to a maximum weekly contact of 15 hours.*

Letter of Understanding re: Evaluation and Performance Review Criteria

The parties agree to develop a Letter of Understanding on Evaluation and Performance Review Criteria for use in the application of Article 10. It is the intent of the parties to develop this letter within 30 days of the signing of this agreement.

Letter of Understanding re: Distributed Learning

The parties support applications of distributed learning that enhance student access and choice within the framework of a broad and comprehensive range of face-to-face learning opportunities.

The College agrees to the following principles regarding the use of distributed learning:

- The Dean, Department Head, or delegate will consult with all regular instructors in the relevant discipline concerning the opportunity to develop or deliver distributed learning courses.
- Faculty participation is voluntary.
- The College will provide any necessary training to faculty members who participate.
- The College will provide adequate clerical, technical support and software, and equipment to faculty members who participate.
- Distributed learning courses, whether, paper based, hybrid or online may require more marking time, administration and preparation time per student than face-to-face classroom instruction, so class size limits will be set accordingly.
- The contact hours per week for delivering a course shall be the same regardless of whether it is offered in distributed learning or lecture format.
- Relevant articles of the Collective Agreement will apply to distributed learning as they do to other teaching methodologies e.g. copyright.
- Faculty members who participate will be given adequate time to develop or revise courses/programs for the distributed learning mode of delivery.

Letter of Understanding re: International Joint Projects

Both parties agree that participation in International Joint Projects is important and valuable and can enhance student and faculty opportunities while supporting international development at the College.

Where a bargaining unit member may be involved in an International Joint Project;

- 1. Financial and other data related to the project will be shared and discussed with the Association and affected faculty.*
- 2. Faculty participation in such projects will be voluntary.*
- 3. Faculty may participate in such projects per Article 5.3.2.*
- 4. For work to be performed in International Joint Projects, the faculty member and the College will, by mutual agreement, determine the terms and conditions for this work. In such circumstances, the College will encourage the faculty member to discuss these terms and conditions with CORFA prior to entering into such an agreement.*

Letter of Understanding re: Flexible Configurations of Work

This letter of understanding addresses the commitment between the College of the Rockies Faculty Association (CORFA) and the College of the Rockies to:

- 1. recognize that faculty members may participate as Contract Instructors in work of the College which is outside of the Bargaining Unit*
- 2. allow faculty members to receive appropriate compensation for such work, either in the form of future release time or other direct compensation*
- 3. recognize that faculty members may, from to time, work in an overload situation and to establish a mechanism to track such work overloads*
- 4. allow for workload averaging beyond one academic year*

The principles surrounding this Letter of Understanding are:

- Except for PLA, which is work that the College may assign to a faculty member, a faculty member's participation in work that is described by this letter will be voluntary. (CORFA will be provided with a copy of any individual agreements developed pursuant to this letter.)*
- All aspects of this letter apply to Regular faculty. Aspects of this letter that deal with work which is outside of the bargaining unit, CTM work, and PLA work, will also apply to Auxiliary and Term faculty.*
- For the purpose of workload averaging of bargaining unit work over two years or more, this Letter of Understanding includes only work that is contact hour driven, or CTM or PLA work.*
- The Human Resources Department will be responsible for establishing and maintaining a system for tracking work accrued for future release time.*
- The right of first refusal will not apply to work outside the bargaining unit. It will only apply to work made available when a faculty member is replaced due to release time granted per the provisions of this letter.*

Specifically, this Letter of Understanding commits CORFA and the College to the following:

- 1. Faculty may participate in work outside of the Bargaining Unit as per 5.3.2.*
- 2. For time worked outside the bargaining unit, the faculty member and the College will, by mutual agreement, determine whether the faculty member will receive direct compensation or release time. Such release time may be scheduled immediately or banked as per section 5 below.*
- 3. The faculty member and the College will negotiate, in advance of each case, the direct compensation or equivalent amount of release time to be made available to the faculty member for participating in work outside the bargaining unit. The amount of cash payment or release time will normally be equal to or greater than what the faculty member would be entitled to if the work had been in the bargaining unit.*

However, where the market dictates lower rates and the faculty member and the College mutually agree, the faculty member may be paid less. In such circumstances, the College will encourage the faculty member to discuss those rates with CORFA prior to entering into such an agreement.

- 4. A faculty member may, with their supervisor's agreement, perform bargaining unit work that is beyond an annual workload in any one year and bank that work toward future release time.*
- 5. A faculty member who banks release time can schedule that release time, by mutual agreement, with their supervisor once a discrete unit of release time is accrued. The faculty member's schedule will be amended within the next year to average the workload. If that is not practical, the faculty member will bank the overloaded work for release time within a three-year period. The measure of a discrete unit will vary from program to program (weeks, sections, etc.)*
- 6. If a faculty member terminates employment prior to using banked time, s/he will be paid out for that banked time. Neither a faculty member nor a supervisor should be unreasonable in agreeing to the scheduling of banked release time.*

Letter of Understanding re: Tutorial Assignments

The parties agree to the following concerning Tutorial Assignments:

- 1. No additional tutorial assignments will be included within the bargaining unit during the term of this agreement.*
- 2. The parties will review existing tutorial assignments that are included within the bargaining unit with a view to examining the feasibility of employing Professional Tutors to take on those assignments. This review will begin within 60 days of the signing of the collective agreement with conclusions and/or recommendations to be presented to the President by May 31, 2002.*

Letter of Understanding re: Courses Offered Through Institutes or Community Development

The parties agree that if College of the Rockies credit is granted to a student of a contract training course, during that course, or within two (2) months of the completion of the course, the instructional assignment for that contract training course will be considered bargaining unit work. If the Instructor of the course has not already been compensated at bargaining unit rates or greater, s/he will be entitled to compensation at her/his applicable bargaining unit rate.

Letter of Understanding re: Second Functional Areas

The parties agree to the following clarification of the collective agreement language concerning the seniority list and functional areas:

- 1. The primary functional area for each faculty member is based upon that faculty member's work assignment in the previous two calendar years prior to January first of the current year.*
- 2. A faculty member who is currently listed with a second functional area will retain that second functional area. If a faculty member's primary functional area changes per #1, his/her previous primary functional area will become his/her second functional area.*
- 3. In January of each year, a faculty member may apply to be listed on the seniority list in a second functional area. Such application must be forwarded to the faculty member's Dean or Campus Manager on or before January 31. Article 13.1.3.3 refers.*
- 4. In February each year, the seniority list will be amended per successful applications from #3.*
- 5. A faculty member can only have one second functional area. If a faculty member successfully applies for a second functional area, per #3, and he/she already has a second functional area, the previous second functional area will be removed.*

Letter of Understanding re: Orientation Session

The College and the Association agree to establish an ad-hoc Committee to develop an orientation session for new faculty. This Committee will begin its work upon the signing of this collective agreement and will complete its work by June 30, 2001. The Committee will include two representatives of the Association and two representatives of the College.
